- Review of minutes. Mike made a motion to approve, Heidi 2nd - all approved.

Finance Report:

- Will have information at next meeting

Basketball:

- Will report on the 5 minute rule when feedback is received from Divisions

Ski/Snowboard Program:

- Program was a huge success.
- We received a claim that a backpack went missing from the mountain during the program. The contents were valued at $310. The person was looking to be reimbursed from the Rec Department and R.L. McCarthy & Son, Inc.– Mark made a motion to approve $310.00 reimbursement, Mike 2nd – all approved.
- There will be a signed disclaimer for all participants to be in place by next season. The disclaimer is to state that the Recreation Department or it's volunteers are not responsible for participants lost items.

Fields Update:

- Waiting on update from Bill Tuttle about field use.
 - Don't anticipate fields ready for 2-3 weeks. We will wait on schedule from DPW. They will be doing all maintenance on fields.
- Little League is down at RBI for 4 weeks.
- Request made to have field behind Houghton School fixed up - dig up clay and add stone dust, as an option.

Easter Egg Hunt:

- Thanks to all for helping out! Huge Success.
- Suggestions for next year:
 - Hold back some eggs for the people who arrive later than 12pm
 - Start exactly at 12pm

1835 Hall:

- The 1835 is looking to have us help pay for a key pad door lock on the back door. The proposed cost is $1328.22.
 - We will wait on a decision until our meeting with the 1835 committee.

Summer Activities:

- We have reached our goal of $1000.00 in donations for concert series.
- Brochure is complete and out to print

Announcements:

- Amy Abrams requested that Recreation have a track program in Sterling so Chocksett kids don't have to travel to Princeton schools.
- Meeting adjourned 8:10pm
